

SQM ANNOUNCES ISSUE AND SALE OF US$600 MILLION SUBORDINATED CAPITAL NOTES

Santiago, Chile, January 14, 2026—Sociedad Química y Minera de Chile S.A. (SQM) (NYSE: SQM; Santiago Stock Exchange: SQM-B, SQM-A) announced today that it had agreed to issue and sell US$600 million principal amount of its subordinated capital notes due 2056. The notes will have an initial annual interest rate of 5.625%, and are subject to reset on April 22, 2031 (the “First Reset Date”), and on every fifth anniversary thereafter, with interest rate step-ups on the fifth and twentieth anniversaries of the First Reset Date. The transaction is expected to close on January 22, 2026, subject to customary closing conditions.

SQM intends to allocate the net proceeds from the offering of the notes to refinance its outstanding indebtedness and for general corporate purposes, including funding its capital expenditures program. Net proceeds may be temporarily invested before use.

The notes are being sold to qualified institutional buyers in the United States in accordance with Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and to persons outside the United States in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state or other jurisdiction’s securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state or other jurisdictions’ securities laws.

The notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area or the United Kingdom. Accordingly, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (including as it forms part of United Kingdom domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018) has been prepared in relation to the notes.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the notes or any other securities, nor shall there be any offer, solicitation or sale of the notes or any other securities in any state or other jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as: “anticipate,” “plan,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “strategy,” “should,” “will” and similar references to future periods. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements we make concerning the implementation of the partnership with Codelco, the development of Salar Futuro Project, SQM’s capital expenditures, financing sources, Sustainable Development Plan, business and demand outlook, future economic performance, anticipated sales volumes and sales prices, profitability, revenues, expenses, or other financial items, anticipated cost synergies and product or service line growth.

Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are estimates that reflect the best judgment of SQM management based on currently available information. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors that are outside of our control and could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated in such statements. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements. Readers are referred to the documents filed by SQM with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, including the most recent annual report on Form 20-F, which identifies other important risk factors that could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are based on information available to SQM on the date hereof and SQM assumes no obligation to update such statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as required by law.
