

SQM S.A. Board Member Series B Candidate & Biography

Antonio Gil Nieves

Mr. Antonio Gil Nieves was nominated as an independent Board Member of SQM (Series B), and on March 26, 2024, he accepted this nomination. We have also been informed that Mr. Gil Nieves does not have, and has not had a contractual, commercial or other relationship with the Company or its main competitors or suppliers in the past eighteen months, except for his share ownership position in SQM and one of its major suppliers: Empresas Copec. We have also been informed that Mr. Gil Nieves is an independent candidate according to the NYSE rules.

Mr. Gil Nieves holds a degree in Industrial Engineering from ICAI (Universidad Pontificia Comillas, Spain), MBA from Harvard Business School and participated in the Stanford Executive Program. He has more than 25 years of experience in strategic leadership, management, financial and investment roles at global, European and Latin American levels. He is currently board member of Latam Airlines Group and a strategic and financial advisor to several national and international companies. Previously, he was CEO of Moneda Asset Management, Vice President of ACAFI, Managing Director, worldwide CFO and member of the global executive committees of several businesses at JPMorgan and started his career as strategic consultant for BCG in Spain.